Wedding Legality

How to Get Marriage in Bali, Indonesia

This information is about the terms and conditions to get married in Indonesia based on Indonesian Law by Ministry of Religion or the Civil Registry.

Getting Married under Indonesian Law

It is also required that the couple should hold the same religion as it is governed by the Indonesian Marriage Law No.1 of 1974. If not, bride or groom should make a statement letter that he or she intends to marry in one of the religions they agreed without force from other party or his/her partner; the letter should be legalized by the consulate office or local government.

The legal marriage will be conducted by the officers of the Civil Registry Office (Kantor Catatan Sipil), or the Office of Religious Affairs (Kantor Urusan Agama) if they are Moslem. For full legal marriage, it should be conducted according to the religion \(religious marriage\) and officially registered at the Civil Registry Office and conform to the laws of the countries of both parties.

Foreign nationalities should apply for a No Impediment to Marriage certificate at the related Embassy or consulate office. To obtain this Certificate you need to: apply in person at the Embassy during office hours, sign an application form in front of a Consular Officer, show original passport, birth certificates as proof of identities, provide original proof of dissolution of marriage / marriages (if any).

Frequently Asked Questions

- Can I marry at the Embassy? NO
- How long does it take to issue a CNI? Usually while you wait provided the documentation is correct/complete.
- Will my marriage be recognized in my country? YES
- Do I need to register the marriage with the Embassy? NO
- Do I need to register the marriage in my country? NO, You can not register an overseas marriage in your country.
- Can I marry before my divorce decree absolute is issued? NO

Engagement Service in Bali

Bali is also a memorable and romantic place for engagement and commitment. Some people prefer an engagement or commitment instead of wedding due to the terms and conditions of their country's law or other considerations. Engagement is a promise to marry and commitment is such a personal announcement to public that they're both now committed couples bound in one love. Commitment and engagement ceremony is more casual and simple rather than wedding. Commitment and engagement are non legal binding ceremonies.

Engagement procession is a simple ceremony, the following is a standard engagement procession. Some parts might be omitted as necessary.

Engagement Procession

Greeting

The ceremony starts with a warm welcome greeting by the officiant. The couples might tell their love story in brief as a background of the ceremony.

Vows

In this part, the couple will declare their intention for the commitment or engagement. The couple might use their own words to express their commitment. The couple will be referred as fiancée (future bride) and groom (future groom).

Readings/ Music

The ceremony may include music or readings of love poems or passages of literature depend on the couples' preference.

Exchange of Rings

The same like wedding ceremony, the couple will exchange rings and said the commitment.

Pronouncement of Engagement

The officiant announces to the guests that the couple is now united/ engaged and invites the couple to express their love

Religious Marriage in Bali

Religious Wedding is a part of the Legal Wedding Process. It must be conducted before the civil wedding take place.

All nationalities may marry legally in Indonesia as long as they hold religion recognized by the Indonesian Government (Moslem, Hindu, Buddhist, or Christian Protestant, Catholic), single or divorced, have reach maturity age to marriage, and have legal papers. A marriage certificate will be issued by the religion officiant.

Couples should hold the same religion

Based on Indonesian Marriage Law No.1 of 1974 concerning, both parties must hold the same religion, If not, bride or groom should make a statement letter that he or she intends to marry in one of the religion they agreed without force from other party or his/ her partner; the letter should be legalize by the consulate office or local government.

Moslem Weddings

Moslem weddings are conducted by the Office of Religious Affairs (KUA) in a Mosque, residence, etc, which will issue a Marriage Books (Buku Nikah), one book for the wife and one for the husband as written evidence. It is not necessary to register at the Civil Registry Office (Kantor Catatan Sipil). A marriage certificate issued by the Civil Registry Office is needed if the couples live in other Country.

Christian, Catholic, Hindu and Buddhist Weddings

Christian, Hindu, and Buddhist marriages (non Moslem), couples should submit a Notice of Intention to Marriage to the Civil Registry Office at least 2 weeks prior to the wedding. The marriage will become legal after it is registered at the Civil Registry Office after the ceremony in the church, temple, etc. Generally these are the major important papers needed for the registration:

Notes: Catholic church only allows wedding ceremony to be held at churches.

1. the originals and a photocopy of passports or KTP (Indonesian ID card),
2. birth certificates,
3. marriage certificate (if divorced),
4. proof of dissolution of previous marriage (if any),
5. eight photos (4 x 6 cm) of the couple (groom on the right side of the bride),
6. Letter of No Impediment from Consulate General

In such cases other documents might be requested, please consult with us or your religious officiant.

Legal Wedding in Bali

Possessing both Religious and Civil wedding ceremonies in Bali is recognized as LEGAL by most of foreign countries. Those ceremonies are initially done based on religion of each couple which is recognized by the Government of Indonesia, such as: Christian Protestant, Catholic, Buddhist, Hindu and Moslem.

For the legal wedding, there is a specific document requires by Indonesian Authorities as a part of legal documents requirements. The document called "CNI" (Certificate of Non Impediment to Marriage). All couples must obtain this certificate at their Consular office or Embassy representative in Bali to state that you have no objection to get married legally in Indonesia (should there be no Consular office in Bali, then you need to visit your embassy office in Jakarta).

For legal wedding in Bali, the following basic requirements are required in order to process your marriage certificate by five recognized faith in Indonesia as follows:

- Copy passport of wedding couple
- Copy of birth certificates of wedding couple
- Death certificate or Decree absolute divorce certificate of former spouse (when relevant)
- Copy passport of two (2) witnesses are required (we can usually provide this)
- Certificate of No Impediment (CNI)
- Six (6) photographs (4 x 6 cm) of the couple in the same photo. Photo must be of the head & shoulders only, side by side, looking straight ahead. These photos will be attached to your wedding certificate, so make it look nice.
- Fill in the wedding application form

To obtain the above certificate, all couple should visit personally to Consular or Embassy Office which are available in Bali or Jakarta and confirm that you are free to marry.

Vow Renewal in Bali

What is a wedding vow renewal? It is an informal ceremony usually to celebrate the wedding anniversary and following with a second honeymoon. Bali is a romantic place for vow renewal venue, the beautiful sceneries and unique culture will be an unforgettable memories.

There are some reasons you might consider for vow renewal:

- Wedding anniversary celebrations
- Had religiously married before and now want to follow the legal marriage
- Re-united after divorced
- Want to “I-do” over again in front of important guests or family members that couldn’t present in your real wedding.
- You’ve “rocks and storms” in your marriage and want to refresh and save your marriage.
- You only have limited budget on your real wedding and now have enough budget to celebrate it with better arrangement

Vow renewal ceremony usually conduct by an officiant/ priest (if requested) or a senior family member. The ceremony is informal so basically it consists of opening speech by officiant/ priest or senior family member, a brief explanation from yourself regarding the intention of your vow renewal, reaffirm the wedding commitment “I-do”, simple blessing and exchange rings (if needed), closing and usually following by a reception.

The decoration, entertainment and reception for vow renewal is likely the same with wedding ceremony and could be simple and informal depends on what you wish and your budget.

Is It Legal to Get Married in Bali?

This website is created with consideration that there are many International couples interested to get married in the beautiful island of Bali, either in their hotel or villa, in a simple or luxury restaurants, by the beach, in a chapel or church etc.

However, some worry about whether marriage in Bali is legal or not, or how to make it legal. Don't worry, I have gathered such information in details, including the consulates addresses where you need to get some of the document.

Email us with your question, we will do our best to provide you with in-depth information.

Our Bali Wedding Packages

We want to be a little bit different. Instead of listing a big bunch of wedding packages, we prefer to provide you with information of the available Wedding Types as well as Wedding Themes in Bali. No, we do not want to confuse you, not by mentioning Package A and Package B in different pages just because the latest includes imported flowers and 2 Balinese girls for example.

Monaco Bali Wedding Type covers terms like commitment and engagement services, religious marriage, legal wedding, as well as vow renewal. Meanwhile Wedding Theme includes things like garden wedding, beach wedding, villa wedding etc. In each of those pages of descriptions, we list the wedding vendors and their starting prices.

There is also a link to the Special Offers --which accommodate standard inclusion. If you already have something in your mind, then you can see the price idea for the upgrades.

When emailing Us, just let us know what kind of wedding types you prefer, and in what theme. That's it!

P.S: Remember... In some cases, we do not include the venue fee as they differ quite a lot from place to place. Hotel or villa may require minimum stay as well as Village (Banjar) Fee. Public Beach may require Village (Banjar) Fee. Some entertainment require police license, and so forth. These details will be included during correspondence.

How to Book our Services

Booking a wedding is not as simple as booking a hotel where you fill-in the form and get instant confirmation. Use our pre-wedding Inquiry form. Tell us who you are, where you are from, what is your current status, and what kind of wedding you would like to have, then we will come up with a personalized package.

All of the priests are fully licensed and under their official authority, e.g. the Catholic Priest is under Denpasar Dioceshan (Keuskupan Bali dan Nusa Tenggara), Buddhist priest from Sinagoge, Hindu Priest from PHDI, Moslem priest is the clerk of Denpasar or Badung's Kantor Urusan Agama (Office of Religious Affairs).

Booking with vendors is made after we finalize everything, including the payment of course ;) . Booking for hotel, villa or other vendors can be checked directly with them. Please read the FAQ and terms/conditions of booking.
